GUEST APPEARANCE . . . Newspaper columnists and glamour consultants, Reba and Bonnie Churchill, will make guest appearances at the Broadway's annual College Board show Wednesday. Set in a theme of "Campus International", the show is slated for 2:30 and 7:30 at the ballroom of the Biltmore in Los Angeles.

International Fashion Show Set by Broadway

Campus clothes capturing fashion ideas from around the world will set the scene for "Campus International," the Broadway's annual College Board Show slated for Wednesday, Aug. 15. The mammoth back-to-school style show will be staged twice in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles — at 2:30 and again at 7:30.

The fashion collection, inspired by an international influence on fashion looks this fall, will parade amidst a setting representing every country of the globe. To fully endorse the international theme, the show will feature college-student models from "at home and abroad" and world renowned figures in the fields of sports, entertainment, literature, government and fashion. Personifying "Campus International" are 40 Broadway College Board members who represent nearly every college and university in California, as well as the foreign countries of Turkey, Vietnam and Iran.

Campus clothes with a high fashion I.Q. will headline the show, commented by Miss Catherine Wueste, Broadway Fashion coordinator. The opening sequences will feature fashions for western, midwestern and eastern campus wear. Following sequences will salute foreign countries which are influential in the fall fashion picture — among them, the Scandinavian countries for the Alpine look; Africa for fabulous furs; England for hacking jackets, tweeds and knickers; Scotland for kilts and scotch plaids; and Ireland for mohairs and hand-loomed knits.

All college and high school students in the South Bay area are invited to attend. Reservations may be made by phoning the Broadway or by signing a reservation card in any of the Broadway sportswear departments.

Grand Regents Visit Camp

Recent guests at Grand Regents Day at Catholic Daughters-sponsored Teresita Pines girls summer camp at Wrightwood were Torrance residents, Mmes. Lee, grand regent and vice grand regent of Court St. Catherine.

Each July, for one day, the girls at camp entertain all of the grand regents of the Archdiocese.

The grand regents traveled by chartered bus and upon arrival were greeted at an informal coffee and were shown a sampling of the craftwork accomplished during their stay at camp.

Four area coffees are being planned during August to acquaint women college graduates with the activities of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women, according to Mrs. Michael N. Lesli, president.

Mrs. Ronald Webb, membership chairman, announced that the 10 a.m. coffees for prospective members are scheduled as follows: Tuesday, Aug. 21, at the home of Mrs. John D. Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 9) like a child. That very day I made arrangements with the local vet to take all the animals off my hands for two weeks and I took the fish over to my mother's. I've been a grown-up wife ever since. I hope the plant lady takes your advice, Ann, and smartens up before she loses a good man. — EX DUMB BUNNY

Dear Ann Landers: Can you help me with my problem? I'm 16 and very grown up for my age. My boy friend is 17 and we are in love. Of course we know we are too young to get married right now, but we are counting on it someday.

My folks don't want me to go with Dave because he doesn't have a hood on his car and it has only one tail light. Don't you think this is a pretty weak excuse for spoiling a girl's life?

My mom says the neighbors are talking about the looks of Dave's car and she doesn't want him to park it in front of our house any more. I told my dad this was very unfair. He threatened to have Dave put under a peace bond if he showed up at the house again?

What do you suggest I do? I am very miserable over this.—JACQUELINE

Dear Jacqueline: If your Dad is talking about a peace bond I'm sure he has more against this boy than the looks of his car. You kids who write and ask me to take your side would do well to give me the straight goods.

Parents want their children to be happy. I assure you your Dad isn't trying to spoil your life. He apparently has good reasons for wanting this boy to stay away from your house. So don't try to kid of Annie. I've read enough letters to know when there are missing links.

To learn the booby-traps of teenage drinking, write for "ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.
